Student Paper Awards

For Welding Engineering Technologists at SAIT

March 20th, 2019 - Calgary, AB

SAIT Polytechnic - Aldred Center, Room CA-415

OBJECTIVE: The objective is to have at least 2 groups of SAIT WET students prepare a technical paper and present their findings for a panel of judges. The paper can be on any topic of their choosing related to their field of study: materials, welding, joining, inspection, etc. The paper must be original work completed by the submitting group. This work should include data or information procured by the group themselves and is not intended to come entirely from internet findings. Students are encouraged to carry over work from their in class projects as long as the work is authentic and completed only by the group members. Group size can be individuals to a maximum of two people.

DISCUSSION: The presentations and papers will be judged by a panel of 3 to 5 judges selected from the CWA organizing committee. The winning group and second place group will be declared at the end of the presentations.

CWB Association will award $1000 to the best and $500 to the second place recipients.

CRITERIA:

1. Total allotted time for each presentation including Q&A period is 30 minutes
2. Each group shall submit their technical research paper to the judging panel for review prior to their presentation
3. Judging of candidates will focus on:
 - Technical content and Originality
 - Style of presentation - Speech clarity of each member
 - Handling of Q & A period
 - Relevance of conclusions to our Alberta industry
4. All members of the group must participate in the presentation

HOW TO REGISTER:

Registrations must be received by February 25th 2019.

Information required for registration is:

- Name of the one or two members in the group,
- Year of study,
- Topic and abstract of paper

An abstract is a brief summary of a research article, thesis, review, or any in-depth analysis of a particular subject. It is used to help an audience quickly review the main purpose of the paper or presentation.

Email the above info to calgary@cwbandassociation.org with the subject line: Student Paper Night Application.

Selection of the final groups (4 maximum) will be announced March 4th, 2019. The selections will be based on the abstracts submitted. These groups will be required to present and submit their paper for review on March 20th.
